26 August 1956

25X1X7
[redacted]
Washington, D. C.

Dear [redacted] 25X1X7

Necessary arrangements have been made to furnish the [redacted] 25X1X7
25X1X [redacted] the various National Intelligence Estimates and other CIA reports of interest to the [redacted] 25X1X7

The arrangement for receiving the material which you have proposed in your letter of 8 August 1956 is acceptable here. It appears to me, however, that such procedure may unduly inconvenience you or [redacted] 25X1X7 in that your schedules might be altered merely for the purpose of awaiting our courier. I am wondering if the Chancery has some authorized Top Secret recipient regularly present who might receive the material on your behalf, execute our courier receipt and in due course turn the unopened material over to you? The inner receipt could then be executed by you or [redacted] 25X1X7 and returned at your convenience.

In any event, we shall be happy to abide by your desires in the matter and, for the present, will dispatch the material direct to you or [redacted] with prior notification by telephone.

25X1X7

Very truly yours,

[redacted] 25X1A9a
